MISC. ANIMAL ISSUES

Anyone encountering animal related issues can call 707-565-4406, 24/7 until further notice. Donations can also be made through this line. Please share information about the number of animals, type of animals, address and location for the animals, and any information about the families associated with the animals, if known.

WILDLIFE NOTE: If you live anywhere near the forest fires, animals fleeing the fires may show up in your yards. The forestry department is urging you to bring your animals in at night and let the wild ones pass through. Please put out buckets of water for them. They are scared, exhausted & have lost their homes. They need to refuel.

MISSING A RELATIVE? Or mark yourself as "safe"

- Go here > <https://safeandwell.communityos.org/cms/index.php>

ADVICE FROM FORMER FIRE VICTIMS:

- (1) Contact your insurance companies. Most will cover hotel stays, apart from the usual coverage.
- (2) Call your credit card companies and have the last 3-6 months of your purchases reimbursed back (get a police report that testifies you are a fire victim).
- (3) If you are renting and are a minor, your parents' home insurance may cover your belongings.
- (4) Call your chain retail stores and see what they can offer to fire victims (GAP gave away free clothes to fire victims up to $500 per person during the Oakland fires).
- (5) Needing mail? Wait until the fire is over. Post offices in the Santa Rosa McBride area are being evacuated.

Find REFB Produce Pantry and Groceries to Go program sites in your neighborhood.

Groceries to Go provides participants a monthly offering of government commodities supplemented by fresh produce, bread, and shelf-stable groceries from the REFB. Produce Pantry provides participants with fresh fruits and vegetables, supplemented by healthy staple groceries each week. Both programs are open to anyone in need of assistance. The REFB Groceries to Go program requires that recipients self-verify their income to ensure it is within the income guidelines established by the State of California.

Program participants do not need to show proof of income, or identification.
